Since 2008 he has been nominated Music Director of the Lithuanian Chamber Orchestra and he is regularly taking on the double role of soloist and conductor in a wide repertoire ranging from Baroque music to contemporary works.

In 2016, Deutsche Grammophon has released a first CD of Vivaldi's Four Seasons in the double role of soloist and conductor with the Lithuanian Chamber Orchestra and will shortly be releasing a second album dedicated to Paganini's 24 Capricci. Krylov's discography includes also recordings for Melodya and EMI.

Born in Moscow into a family of musicians, Sergej Krylov began studying the violin at the age of five and completed his studies at the Moscow Central Music School.
